14. WINDING UP

In the event of the club winding up all monies and assets to be realised and dispersed evenly among all fully paid up members.

(Amended January 2015)

RULES

1. Members are strongly recommended that they become Members of The Angling Trust but a decision whether or not to do so is a matter of personal choice. ALL members are eligible to compete for club awards provided:-

- THAT THE APPROPRIATE ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION HAS BEEN PAID; and
- THAT THEY DO NOT COMPETE FOR OTHER CLUB'S AWARDS – the only permitted exceptions shall be National, Specimen Groups and Plymouth Federation awards.

(However, anglers should note that neither the Angling Trust nor the Wyvern Division will accept, for either monthly or annual awards, any fish that have formed part of a catch that has been or is intended to be sold).

2. Club affiliations shall be at the discretion of members.
3. As a club affiliated to The Angling Trust members must comply with their rules and it is in members' interests that they familiarise themselves with these rules.
4. The Executive Committee shall select representatives and delegates to other Bodies.
5. A non-voting associate (or "country") membership may be offered, at the discretion of the Committee, to individuals residing outside the Port of Plymouth area following a written application to the Secretary, for a nominal subscription of £3.00.
6. Members wishing to weigh-in fish for club awards are required to comply with the weighing procedures set out below:-

- (i) Except as may be otherwise decided for specific competitions, all fish (with the exception of mini-species) caught within an area including Devon and Cornwall and extending to a line drawn between the Severn Bridge – Weymouth – Portland Bill shall be weighed against the Plymouth Federation of SACs Specimen Fish List and where appropriate, be eligible for submission for Plymouth Federation of SACs, Wyvern Region and Angling Trust awards.

Fish caught outside this area will also be acceptable for weigh-in for awards as provided under the Angling Trust Specimen Fish Awards Scheme.

Entries for club awards shall normally only be registered if the fish:-

- (a) Has been weighed on the club scales and subsequently recorded by the Records Officer;
- (b) Has been weighed on other scales which carry a current Certificate of Test issued by a Trading Standards Officer provided
 - (1) the weighing is undertaken or witnessed by another club member or a member of another recognised angling club and appropriately recorded or is accompanied by a photograph of the captor with their fish; in a case where the witness is not a member of a recognised angling club, the entry must include the name and contact telephone number of the witness who may subsequently be contacted by the Records Officer for verification purposes;
 - (2) in a case where there is no witness to the capture or its weight, the captor supplies a video recording showing the scales being zeroed and the fish subsequently being weighed so backing up the entry on the weigh-in slip, but subject to acceptance being at the discretion of the Records Officer; ;
 - (3) in the case of boat caught fish that are weighed and released at sea, the entry is accompanied by a photo of the captor with the fish, the weight recorded being certified by the boat skipper as being the lowest registered on the scales and the latter's name and contact telephone number is entered on the weigh-in slip for possible verification by the Records Officer.

OR MOST EXCEPTIONALLY

- (4) Weighed on other scales carrying a current Certificate of Test e.g. Tackle Shop, Butcher (or other Tradesman) provided the weight and species are recorded at the time of weighing on a receipt, bill, etc on which the name and address of the business is printed.
 - (ii) the acceptance of fish weighed on scales other than club scales are however, subject to the further proviso that weigh-in slips, etc. are received by the Records Officer NOT LATER THAN SEVEN DAYS FROM THE DATE OF CAPTURE.
- 7. Fish which are caught from a boat by either the boat owner or skipper as part of a commercially intended catch will not be accepted for entry for any club, local or national awards.
